Issue 20

Dear God

Thank you for our family and friends.
Thank you for the love we share with one another.
Help us to make it stronger day by day.

WELL DONE to the following pupils who received special awards this week:

Year 1 – Felicity, Lacey, Oliver

Year 2 – Lucas, Joseph, Anna

Year 3 – Ted, Callum, Theia

Year 4 – Landun, Tom S, Sophie

Year 5 – Millie, Max, Freddie

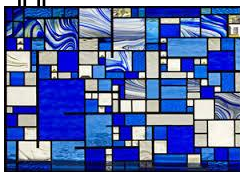

Year 6 – Caspar, Cheska, Megan

COMMUNITY ARTS PROJECT

The school has secured some funding for a Community Arts Project, and yesterday Mrs Smart, Reuben and I (as part of the JLT) went over to the Cornish Care Home to interview a panel of artists.

We were looking for a suitable artist to work alongside the school, and residents of the Care Home, to design and make a stained glass window to be displayed in the school and the Care Home. It was a very difficult decision, as all the artists were so good. Finally, we made up our mind, and we are looking forward to the project starting.

Message from the Headteacher

This week has been one of my proudest at Holy Trinity. On Tuesday, Wendy Smart and I attended the 'Thank you' Briefing held by the National Schools Commissioner. The briefing was not only to say 'thank you' to the 20 top performing primary schools in the region, but to also share out good practices to help underperforming schools.

It has been Assessment Week at Holy Trinity and all the children have worked so hard. The teachers will be sharing your child's progress with you in the Parent Consultation Meeting scheduled for the week after half term. Confirmation of your appointment times have been sent out today.

We do have some sad news. Mrs Janice Flashman will be leaving us at the end of this month to take up a position as a PA for Alain Rouveure Gallery charity. Janice has worked tirelessly for HT over 12 years. I would like to thank her personally for all her hard work, she will be sorely missed.

Therefore, Mr Andrew Eustace will be moving from Year 4 to Year 5 after February half term, which allow a short handover period.

Finally, well done to our netballers who came third in the Partnership Netball Tournament.
